

SCDNR Shooting Ranges:

Find current information on all SCDNR Shooting Range schedules as well as locate ranges by County, Name and Map.

Discover "First Shots" which makes getting started in shooting very easy — and, best of all, participants that complete the post event survey are rewarded with a coupon to use on their next visit to the host range. Find news and events in your area, print out free targets, get up to speed on the basics of firearm safety, find programs to help get started in the shooting sports and more.
